Engaging WHMIS: Training for Safety Success

Interactive hazardous materials training

AUDIENCE

This training is designed to meet the general WHMIS Education requirements of employees in a broad selection of Canadian workplaces.

Note: employees tasked with the handling of Controlled Products will require Hazard-specific training.

About

Engaging WHMIS: Training for Safety Success is an interactive learning module offering a complete training and testing solution to meet the requirements of general employee Workplace Hazardous Materials Information System compliance. In this module, students will:

- Be placed in the fictional role of a new hire tasked with assisting their employer, a company that leases office space, with meeting compliance to the WHMIS Regulations.
- Experience exactly how WHMIS is used in the workplace through scenarios such as: using a Material Safety Data Sheet to determine the correct spill procedures; where to use workplace labels; and dealing with chemicals left onsite by contractors.

Advantages for your organization:

- Efficient online training: employees learn according to YOUR scheduling requirements;
- Online tracking for easy management of training status;
- Increased understanding of WHMIS amongst all staff.
