

CSA OnDemand™

Standards solutions for every need

CSA OnDemand™ represents a complete re-imagining of how you acquire and access your standards content. Built right into our online store solution, CSA OnDemand™ gives you incredible choice in the way you purchase and consume your standards information. Whether you need a single standard or a collection made up of thousands of documents, our new online store is designed to help you find the content you need and CSA OnDemand™ delivers it whenever you need it.

Why Choose CSA OnDemand™ ?

CSA OnDemand™ helps you maximize productivity across your organization through flexible, cost-effective and immediate access to the standards you need to help meet your organizational goals, academic needs or compliance requirements.

- CSA OnDemand™ provides 24/7 access to the content you and your organization needs, whether you're in the office, at the job site or in the classroom
- Whether you purchase or subscribe to PDF codes, standards or handbooks, you will find them collected for your convenience in your CSA OnDemand™ library
- Build your own, customized collection of standards online or leverage our pre-built collections for best value

- Whether you purchase or subscribe to standards, they are always up-to-date, reflecting post-publication updates and amendments
- Subscription content includes all available historical editions and both English and French versions where available
- Simple, easy-to-use and responsive interface allows you to find what you need quickly through full-text keyword search and extensive search filters
- Add highlights and notes to documents to personalize them to your needs
- Bookmark key points within documents and favourite regularly used documents for easy reference
- You can easily set up access for named users or through IP authentication for larger organizations

Academic Access

CSA Group invests in the standards system in Canada by supporting the use of standards in education through a cost-effective, solutions for Canadian colleges and universities.

Benefits

- Our new platform utilizes IP-authenticated access for simpler setup and user administration for large organizations
- Ability to designate multiple account administrators
- Significantly discounted academic pricing available
- Seamless digital rights management protections that do not require a separate plug-in reduce risk of students violating intellectual property rights

Corporate Access

Benefits

- Offers your choice of named user or IP-authenticated access
- Ability to manage user access and designate multiple account administrators
- No need to manage the number of sites and concurrent users
- Seamless digital rights management protections that do not require a plug-in reduce risks while protecting intellectual property rights

Contact Us

We know that standards can be complicated. Finding the right solution to meet your needs sometimes requires help. Our Standards Customer Success team is here to help. We can help you to find the standards, training or supplementary products that help meet your unique needs. We can also help you to navigate challenges that may arise and get your business back on track.

Contact Us

Put CSA Group's industry-leading knowledge and experience to work for you.

800 463 6727
sales@csagroup.org store.csagroup.org